

Please follow the advice of modern city planners and build as much housing as possible close to transit areas. Poor decisions made because people bully you are public meetings are not in the long term interests of our city and the building of a sustainable community.

Good luck.

KS