Virtual Community Workshops on General Plan and Housing Element

We're returning to the community for feedback on our General Plan Update and starting the important process of updating plans for how to prepare for new housing for all income levels.

We're hosting several virtual community meetings in late March and April to recap where we are in our General Plan update and kick off our Housing Element update. These two long-range planning documents will help guide decisions about housing, transportation, the environment, public safety, economic development and much more.

We need your input! Visit www.StriveSanMateo.org to sign up and receive meeting links for one of the upcoming virtual workshops. The same information will be provided at each pair of virtual workshops below.

¡Ayude a formar el futuro de nuestra ciudad!

Talleres Comunitarios Virtuales sobre el Elemento Vivienda y el Plan General

Regresamos a la comunidad para recibir sus comentarios sobre la Actualización del Plan General y comenzar el importante proceso de actualizar los planes sobre cómo prepararse para nuevas viviendas para todas las categorías de ingresos.

Estamos organizando varios talleres virtuales a fines de marzo y abril para informar dónde nos encontramos en la actualización del Plan General y comenzar nuestra actualización del Elemento de Vivienda. Estos dos documentos de planificación ayudarán a orientar las decisiones sobre vivienda, transporte, medio ambiente, seguridad pública, desarrollo económico y mucho más.

¡Necesitamos su opinión! Visite www.StriveSanMateo.org para registrarse y recibir enlaces para uno de los próximos talleres virtuales. Se proporcionará la misma información en cada par de talleres virtuales que se describen a continuación.

Future Steps: Technical Evaluation

- » Determine and evaluate preferred Land Use Scenario
- » Technical evaluation will consider things like:
 - Amount of development that would be allowed
 - Overall character
 - Traffic impacts
 - Public health
 - Potential displacement
 - Impacts on utilities and public services
 - Environmental sustainability
 - City's fiscal health
 - Potential community benefits
 - Development feasibility
 - Applicable State laws/regulations
- » No decisions on a preferred land use scenario will be made until evaluation is complete and shared with the community.
