Hi John,

The Draft General Plan does not specifically address the Rail Corridor TOD Plan because the area is mostly built out or has approved projects that have not yet been constructed. You can find the plan by clicking here.

Thanks,
General Plan Team

Thank you for your feedback! I don't find mention of the "San Mateo Rail Corridor Specific Plan Area" in the general plan. Could you point me to the pages of the plan that address this?

Best regards,
John

[Notice: Outside Sender]

Hi John,

Thank you for pointing out this error. It appears that the area you circled is the San Mateo Rail Corridor Specific Plan Area and the diagonal gold striping is the Hillside Station Area Plan. The legend will be revised before the City Council meeting on the Land Use Element on October 30th.

Thanks,
General Plan Team

Hi,

Figure LU-3 denotes one area with yellow cross-hatching (I've circled the area I'm talking about in the copy that I've pasted below) but doesn't identify it in the key, and I don't find reference to this area within the plan, at least not in the Land Use Element part of the plan. Is this area discussed somewhere in the plan, and if so where?

Best regards,
John
